"SRI SAI CHARANAM SHARANAM MAMA"

Appendix

1. Shl.4
 This shloka can also be understood as one who has reverently saluted by the emperor Akbar. As told by Baba, “I was Kabir in my former janma & that Akbar, the Great emperor, stood in awe of me”. Therefore, Baba fulfilled the ambition of Akbar to unite Hindus and Muslims in His present janma.
2. 20
 One afternoon when “Dhuni ” blazed uncontrollably, Baba by striking his “Satka” against pillar near Dhuni, ordered flames to calm down and it obeyed the order.
3. 21
 Near Dikshitwada, when a poisonous snake was seen, devotees were frightened not knowing what to do?. The situation was nothing, but precarious. The snake went off peacefully as though it was ordered to do so. Thus Baba protected everyone.
4. 27
 Baba's Trikalajnatva and Parachita Abhijana were there all the time when he was normally conscious and required no effort. The extent to which he could see and known was unlimited. He could reveal the past 2000 or 10,000 years back and reveal the future also which would occur some years later. This is practically the same as Yatha Sankalpa samasiddhih and Trikalajnanatva. The knowledge in the phenomenon world is the knowledge of past, present and future events at all places being near or remote . Practically He is Omniscient and Omnipotent. Thus Baba is evidently present everywhere and knew everything (Ritambharaprajna).
5. 60
 Baba by his Trikalajnanatva told past births of many Jivas.
 For eg.- i) Past births of goats.
 ii) About lizard which was chirping.
 iii) History of frog and serpent.
 iv) Baba told about Dr. Rajaram kapdi to his mother that, ‘He was your father in the past life and was also my friend, don’t ever beat him again.’
6. 106
 On the day of ‘Dattajayanti’, during 1911, Sri Balawant .C Kohajkar around 5 p.m., entered ‘Dwarakamai’, he saw a small child with charming three faces i.e, Lord Datta as an infant. This vision was only for a moment. Then he saw Baba in his usual dress and form.

Lord Datta is mulapurusha of Avadhuta cult.

7. 108

The reason for Baba's return to this world was obviously the necessity to complete His mission. The manner of carrying the mission required human instruments. Amongst these instruments, the chief are N.G. Chandorkar, Das Ganu, Dixit, and Shama.

8. 109

Baba would practice "Khanda Yoga". He would separate His hands and legs and then join them again.

9. 137

i) Baba has confirmed to a lady devotee from Bandra, that He was in receipt of pooja which was performed by her from the childhood to Lord Ganapati. Baba also cures her acute head ache.

ii) Baba once pointing to Mr. Gadgil, told that "He thinks that, I am having a rat under my feet and so I am."

10. 156

A doctor, who returned from Africa, was a staunch devotee of Lord Sri Rama. Once his friend persuaded him to visit Shirdi, Doctor agreed for the same only on a condition that, he would not bow to Baba. On reaching Dwarakamai, he prostrated in front of Baba. When doctor was questioned about his action, he declared that he had vision of his Ishtadaiva Lord Rama, then how he can stay without rendering reverence.

11. 160

To mention a few :

i) Baba assumed the form of Golapnath, the guru of Agnihotri Muley Shastri.

ii) Baba appeared as sanyasi at Mr. Dev's place

iii) Baba assumed the form of tangawala, tanga and horses to save Smt.Meenatai. This incident is also known as Jamner Miracle.

iv) Refer the explanation of shloka - 156.

12. 181

Baba directed Das Ganu to go to Kaka Dikshit's house to get a doubt clarified by Dikshit's maid servant.

To mention a few :

- i) Baba to N.R.S. : Repeat "Rama Rama Jaya".
- ii) Baba to Smt. G.S.K. : Repeat "Raja Ram Raja Ram".
- iii) Baba to Shri Pradhan : Repeat "Sri Rama Jaya Rama Jaya Jaya Ram".
- iv) Baba to Shri Rege : Repeat "The name you have
(Mr. Rege was repeating the name of 'Sainath' only). repeated".

Baba once told Uddavesha Bua to bring the purana in which Baba claimed to have already spoken to him and is continuing to do so. Bua could not comprehend this statement. So Baba directed him to go to Wada and bring the same book which was read there. Bua went to Wada and found saint Ekanath's Srimad Bhagavata (Canto 11) was being read there and he brought the same to Baba. Baba randomly opened the book and asked Bua to look at that. Bua glanced through that and realised that it was the same Canto in which Lord Sri Krishna preached Udhava, which is popularly known as 'Udhava Gita'.

Now Bua could comprehend the implicit meaning of Baba's statement i.e. 'Baba has already preached Bua in Dwaparayuga and is continuing the same'.

This incident was narrated by Shri Shama Rao Jayakar to H.H. Narasimha Swami:

Shri Jayakar was relaxing at Dixitwada when he heard a chaos. He came out and witnessed a scene wherein a pack of dogs were being chased by a small dog, behind which group of villagers were running with sticks in their hands. It was quite obvious from the scene that small dog was suffering from rabies.

Jayakar then went to Dwarkamai to offer his daily prayers. In a short while the chaotic group has also come there. Small dog ran upto Baba and hid behind Him. The fierce villagers requested Baba to give up the dog as it was mad and posed danger to everyone. Baba abused the villagers for their ruthless behaviour towards poor dumb creature and drove them away.

Then slowly the dog came in front of Baba. Baba just patted the dog with affection, whereby Baba not only blessed the dumb creature by curing its rabies but also saved its life.

206

Baba made fun of Kushbhav for eating onions on Ekadasi, after making Kushbhav to eat onions. Kushbhav justified his action by telling that Baba ate, so also he. Baba disapproved this statement by vomiting sweet potatoes. Kushbhav without second thought and without wasting a second, he fell upon the sweet potatoes and swallowed them. For which action of him, Baba abused and beat him saying "Why do you eat the vomit - uchishta?" Kushbhav did not react.

For his unquestioning faith, Baba granted him power of producing "Udhi" by merely thinking of Baba and holding forth the hands, which will be as sacred as Udhi from Dhunimai of Shirdi.

As narrated by Das Ganu Maharaj :

Das Ganu has begun to do Hari keerthanas at the bidding of N.G. Chandorkar. Das Ganu used to shine in borrowed plumes. Baba objected for such showy dress and instructed to follow "Narada Paddati" i.e, to do keertanas by wearing orthodox dhotar.

18.

Sri G.S. Khaparde was in an imminent peril of prosecution under section 124-A, IP code. Baba gave him sanctuary with those words which forms Magnacarta for all devotees, 'When I am here, why should any one fear?' Thus, the prosecution came to naught.

19.

222

When Mrs. Khaparde stayed in Shirdi with her son, the boy was attacked by plague. Then Mrs. Khaparde sought permission from Baba to return to Amaravathi. Baba by lifting His Kufni, showed three knots on Him and told that He has to suffer for the sake of devotees, all their difficulties are His.

20.

Refer explanation under shloka 640.

21.

244

The day 31.03.1915 was etched in Dikshit's memory. As on that fateful day, Baba saved him and Mr. Fanse from injury and death. With tears in Dixit's eyes, he remembers Baba's assurance 'Kaka, tula kalji kasli? Mala saari kalji aahe.' (Kaka, why should you have any anxiety or care? All your anxieties, cares and responsibilities are mine.)

22.

Around 1898, a notorious dacoit named Kanabhil, has escaped police dragnet and they could not catch him. Das Ganu, who was working in police department, disguised himself as Ramdasi performing keertans at Lonivarni, to collect information regarding the dacoit. But Kanbhil was more brainy, he collected every detail of Das Ganu and came one day to shoot Das Ganu. Das Ganu bowed to Shri Ram and prayed for life, Baba saved him from Kanadhilad.

23.

Once Nana Saheb Chandorkar was on his way to Lord Ganapati temple at Padmalaya forest, where Govind Bua was an archak. As journey was very tedious and strenuous, Nana wished to have a cup of hot tea at destination. Surprisingly, Govind Bua provided him and his companions with hot tea and also confirmed that, Baba has instructed him to prepare hot tea for Nana.

26.

Once Kashiram, after attending weekly bazaar of Naur, was returning to Shirdi. On the way, he was attacked by armed dacoits. He handed over all money, except a small bag containing sugar which he used to feed ants.

But dacoits not knowing the contents of the small bag, harmed him for the bag. In this tussle, Kashiram could kill two dacoits, but fell down when he was attacked from behind. Thinking that he is dead, they left him there and went away. With immense faith in Baba, he returned to Baba instead of getting admitted to hospital. Under Baba's care, he was cured from greivous injuries.

When this tussle was going on between Kasiram and dacoits, Baba at Dwarakami was shouting, abusing and bawling aloud.

As narrated by Das Ganu Maharaj :

On Mahashivratri day, he wanted to have Gangasnan. Baba did not allow him to go, by telling "Ganga is at my feet, don't go". Though Das Ganu knows, Baba is Lord Vishnu and from Vishnu's feet Ganga has flown, Das Ganu had poor and weak faith in this concept. Baba reading his mind, asked him to hold his palm near Baba's feet. The Ganges began to flow from Baba's feet and it was not droplets rather a slow and thin current.

30.

287

Shri Gangagir was famous vaishnava householder saint, who hailed from Punathambe. He was a frequent visitor to Shirdi. When he first saw Baba, he openly proclaimed that "It is the great good fortune of Shirdi, that this precious gem is associated itself with Shirdi. Blessed is the soil of Shirdi on which he has set his foot."

31.

As narrated by Rao Sahib Yeshwant Janardhan Galwankar (Mr. Dabholkar's son-in-law) :

On Galwankar's head, Baba placed His palm by which Galwankar passed into ecstatic condition. Since then he was more spiritual. Baba gave sakshatkar in his dream and asked, "What you want?". Galwankar prayed for 'prem' and 'prem' alone. Ever since he had spells of prem gushing through him.

32.

The occasions on which trouble and danger arose in Nachne's family were numerous. Instead of him being worried on that account, Baba's grace enabled him to maintain placidity and confidence which sweetened his life. His powerful faith in Baba has enabled him and his family members to get sadgati. A few such incidences to which Nachne's family was exposed and how Baba's love and affection protected them are depicted below :

i) Mr. Shantaram Nachne was saved by a mad man in 1914.

ii) Mr. Nachne and others were travelling in a bullock cart at Ranshet pass, the place notorious for being infested with tigers. At the time by taking Baba's name, all of them were saved themselves from the attack of tiger.

iii) In 1915, Shantaram had bunches of calamities in his family. From all calamities Baba saved him and his family members.

iv) In 1916, Mr. Shantaram was saved from drowning.

v) During 1923, 1926, 1929, 1932, 1934, 1935, after Mahasamadhi of Baba, Nachne and his family members were saved from various calamities.

33.

333

In the year 1894, muslims of Shirdi along with Kazi of Sangamaner armed with canes and latis were waiting near Dwarakamai (Masjid) entrance to attack and prevent Hindus from performing pooja with sandal pastes, ceremonial worship, noisy aarti and flowers etc. Mahalasapati, who came there to offer pooja to Baba stood at distance, mentally offered pooja and started retracing his path, after seeing armed mob. Baba himself called him and asked him to perform pooja. Muslims stood aghast and slowly dispersed since then never thought of obstructing Hindus from worshipping Baba in their own way.

34.

Chandbai Patil, the headman of Dhupkhed village lost one of his mares while travelling to Aurangabad. Patil became completely despondent and distressed at the loss. Then a strange thing happened.

A Fakir sitting under mango tree called Patil and asked him to have smoke from chillum and proceed further. But Patil refused to do so, then Fakir enquired the reason for his distress and about saddle on his shoulder. Then Patil told about the loss of the mare. Immediately Fakir directed him to the stream where he would find his mare.

A cook who had served Baba's devotee for 35 years, had stolen Rs. 30,000/- from his master. No clue was there regarding the loss. When once, the master was sitting on otta (a stone bench in front of the house), a Fakir appeared, to whom the master told his grief. Then Fakir advised the master to vow that, he would go to Shirdi of Kopergaon Taluk and to give up one of the food items he liked, till he was able to fulfill his vow of going to Shirdi. Master had vowed and even before a fortnight had elapsed, the cook returned Rs. 30,000/- and requested his master to pardon him.

iii) Also refer explanation under shloka 60.

37. 365

Baba once commanded Das Ganu to perform Namasaptah. Then Das Ganu sought Baba's assurance that Lord Vittala will appear in person. Baba assured that Vittala will appear only when the devotee is full of faith. Namajapa went on for a week and after seventh day's chanting, Das Ganu had darshan of Lord Vittala. Baba's words came true.

38. 368

As narrated by justice Meghashyam Bhagavanth Rege, Indore :
Sri M.B.Rege used to stay at Radhakrishnamai's residence as per instructions of Baba on his visit to Shirdi. One day, both of them have agreed to do Namajapa by taking their Istadeva "Sai's" name.

39. 370

i) N.G. Chandorkar went on pilgrimage to Harischandra mountain. Half-way, his throat was parched by thirst and he was exhausted. He told his companions that if Baba would have been there, He would have given the water. At that time, Baba in Shirdi said to the devotees near him, "Nana is dying of thirst, but would I see him dying that way?". By that time, Bhil (a tribal man) appeared and told Nana that water is just under the stone on which he is sitting. When Nana and his companions moved the stone, they found crystal clear water.

ii) Baba similarly saved another devotee, Uddhaves Bua by supplying water in the form of Goswami, when Bua had fainted on Girnar. Thereafter, when Bua went to Shirdi, Baba confirmed that "HE" has supplied water to him.

371

Even when a Guru is not highly esteemed or has defects, the fullest respect should be shown. Baba knowing fully well the calibre of Jawaharali, Baba did serve him by carrying faggots, lighting up fire for cooking, cooking, sweeping and doing all menial services in the presence of all, with sweet complacency.

41.

406

Bala Saheb Deo had the desire to read "Jñyānēshwari" regularly. But there would be some or other difficulties in doing so. These difficulties were encountered by him because of prarabdha karmas. Baba by mystical processes of i) frequently taking dakshinas, ii) putting him in fear by abusing him in voice of thunder, and iii) threatening to kill him, wiped off his prarabdha karmas and then ordered him to read "Jñyānēshwari" and also guided him after the lapse of one year, so that he could understand what he read in true sense.

42.

A few cases of the wonderful cure of blindness by Baba's Supernatural Power are cited as under :

i) Baba's devotee insisted his son to send him to Baba for His blessings. Then, Deshpande accompanied his grandfather to Shirdi. Grandfather, who was blind, requested Baba sorrowfully for sight. Baba fulfilled his wishes immediately, by granting the vision completely.

ii) Another blind devotee went to Baba and prayed for sight only to have the vision of human form of Baba, in which Baba has manifested. After satiating himself by beholding Baba's human form, his eyesight could be withdrawn. So, Baba at once granted his request, thence, blind devotee had the vision of Baba and then he became blind.

iii) During 1913 - 1915, Swami Sai Sharananand saw a blind man singing "Rama Krishna Hari" in front of Baba. After sometime between 1942 - 1943 the same man in Shirdi was reciting chapters of Bhagavadgita and verses from Jnaneshwar's Amrutanubhava. When enquired by Swami Sai Sharananand that person confirmed that he got the vision by the grace of Baba. To assure Swamiji, he read out several verses from Amrutanubhava, Swami was happy for devotee's wisdom in using the sense of sight granted by Baba.

iv) Sri Lakshman Bhaji Avare lost his eye sight in 1910. Doctors of J.J. Hospital, Bombay, told his sight is lost forever. Then Lakshman alone stayed in Shirdi, he had intense faith in Baba. Every morning, he washed his eyes with water used by Baba to wash His face. After a month, his eyesight got restored. He stayed in Shirdi till Baba's Mahasamadhi.

43. 422

As narrated by Sri Shankar Balwant Kohajkar :

In 1930, he was suffering from dysentery and by mistake, he drank phenyle while he was in half sleepy state. His condition worsened and he was unconscious and doctors gave up hope. On fourth day, he started recovering. While regaining consciousness, he had a vision of young athletic muslim beating all around i.e. on the wall, the floor of his room with his satka and chasing dark men who have surrounded Kohajkar.

These darkmen were none other than Yamadutas and athletic muslim being Baba.

P.S. : There are other various incidences wherein Baba has protected devotees from the hands of Yamadutas.

44. 424

Baba loved Tatya so much that 'HE' allowed him to address Baba as mama (maternal uncle) and allowed Tatya to sleep with HIM for fourteen years in Dwarakamai.

45. 425

Tatya Saheb Nulkar was a subjudge at Pandarapur. Once he had a severe pain in eyes, during his visit to Jalagaon. He realised just three days are ahead for Gurupoomima. He visited Shirdi. When he went to Dwarakamai, Baba in his characteristic way said "Shyama, my eyes are giving me a great deal of trouble and I am suffering too much pain." The moment HE uttered those words the pain in Nulkar's eyes ceased.

Nulkar stayed in Shirdi till death. During the time of Nulkar's death, Baba sent 'UDHI and THIRTH' to Nulkar thereby bestowing sadgati.

46. 429

Mrs. Tarabai Sadashiv Tarkhad of Puna, was an ardent devotee of Baba. i) On one occassion, probably in 1915, she had a splitting neuralgic headache. Number of remedies were tried, but all of no use. She felt, she must die and that would be the relief. She thought, why not die at Baba's feet?. That would be a privilege. With that view, she came to Kopergaon with her husband and there once again she thought better to have a dip in river Godavari before dying. Then she had bath, when she came out of water, the neuralgic ceased and thereafter ceased for ever. Ordinarily, the cold bath could intensify the headache and accelerate the death. The cure is surely by Baba's grace.

ii) During 1927, Mrs. Tarabai was on family way. She set off to Shirdi with her family members. As the foetus died in the womb, her body was turning blue and her blood was getting poisoned. There was no medical assistance and though some medicines were brought from Ahmednagar, they also proved to be of no avail. Then, Mr. Sadashiv Tarkhad went to Sakori seeking help of Upasani Maharaj. But he told that "You have got the best doctor and the best nurse at Shirdi, why do you come to me?". She herself does not know what had happened and became unconscious. In unconscious condition, she started giving directions as to what should be done and accordingly it was followed along with administering 'Udhi' and 'Thirth' of Baba to her. Then in no time, the foetus expelled along with other matters. She remained unconscious for weeks and then she recovered. This is nothing but Baba's kind care for his child.

47. 430

50. 461

R. B. Purandare narrates that a devotee questioned Baba "why he needs Dakshina?". Baba replied, "I am not asking from everyone. I ask only from the man, whom the fakir points out. But in exchange, I have to give that man ten times the money that I had taken as Dakshina".

The most significant meaning for Dakshina was to rid off devotee's ego, and attachment to transient things.

470

As narrated by Sri Damodar Savalram Rasne alias Anna Rasne:
i) Baba by giving him mangoes with instructions to give those fruits to his younger wife, blessed him with children.

ii) When Rasne sat at lotus feet of Baba, he thought for himself that if Baba were to pass away, how hopelessly adrift he would be and how he would fare then?.

To this Baba answered loudly that "I will be with you, when ever and where ever you think of Me".

52.

474

Baba would give counsel, warnings and take care of Chandorkar at all times, but at the same time, He would rebuke him for his errors. Baba taught Chandorkar should grant if he can, if he cannot, he has to give suave negative reply but should not resort to subterfuges. In spite of this lesson, Chandorkar in anxiety to avoid sadhu of Datta mandir at Kopargaon to whom he has promised to give Rs.300, took a devious route as he has forgotten to bring Rs.300. While going in this route, thorns have pierced into his body. On reaching Shirdi, Baba was glum and did not speak to him. When Chandorkar asked for reason, Baba replied "You have avoided visiting Sarkar(Lord Datta) fearing sadhu at mandir would ask you Rs.300. Is this the way you are following my teaching?. How I can talk to you?. It is good that thorns have pierced into your body".

Chandorkar repented for his mistakes and was thankful to Baba to have Him as his guru, who would watch every movement of His disciples and correct as and when it is necessary.

i) As narrated by Rao Bahadur S.B. Dhumal:
In the year 1909, Mr. Dhumal lost his wife. Baba instructed him to perform sixth month masika ceremony at Shirdi and also Baba promised that He would bestow Sadgati to his wife's soul.

ii) Referring to Upasani's wife, who died in Jan 1912, Baba said "Her spirit has come to Me".

54.

Nine years after Baba's Maha Samadhi, i.e in the year 1927, a devotee's wife was miraculously saved by Baba from the jaws of death. The husband and wife were returning home after celebrating Ramanavami at Shirdi. The wife got down at Thana railway station to fetch water. When she was boarding vessel filled with water, the train started moving and the woman fell down between the platform and the train. In spite of everyone's shouting, the train stopped only after some distance. Everyone thought that this lady might have been crushed under the wheels. But to everyone's surprise and utter amazement, the lady was standing Unscathed. In reply to the enquiry of all, she said that as soon as she fell, she remembered Baba. After a while, Baba asked Chandorkar to take it away as HE had eaten. Then Chandorkar was vexed to hear this. He went in anger to chavadi. Then Baba told Chandorkar that, "You have been with Me for more than 18 years, what have you learnt from Me?. I have eaten puran poli in the form of ants". For Chandorkar, it was hard to accept, though he knew this concept intellectually. Then Baba made a secret sign to him, deep in his heart that nobody knew about it. After this incident, Chandorkar realised that Baba is in every creation.

Mrs. Khaparde, a very orthodox brahmin lady used to cook the food at wada and offer the same as naivedya to Baba every day. One day, a dog came near her while she was cooking. She thought food will get polluted and how that food can be offered to Baba as naivediya. So, she flung a burning log at dog injuring it. Then she went to Baba to invite Him to have a platter full of varieties of dishes as naivedya, which was promptly rejected by Baba saying "Yes, I come and you fling burning log at Me".

Baba's advice on cruelty to creatures might sometime seem to be extraordinary.

Bhill challenged Dasa Ganu by saying "If so, our relative who is just dead let come back to life, failing which we will take life of all three of you". Dasa Ganu asked him to sit quietly and wait patiently. All of them went and sat next to dead body.

Dasa Ganu wondered "What to do?. I have given assurance of Mother Sai". Without hesitation, Jothinder said "Maharaj, let us seek refuge in Baba, you just sing 'Sai Raham Nazar Karna, Bachhoka palan karna'. " Dasa Ganu sang with love, affection and immense faith, praying Baba to take care of his children. Jothinder was looking at Baba's photograph and Bhill leader.

Wonders of wonder, Baba's mercy, grace on His children after 15 minutes, dead man was alive. Bhill came and prostrated before Baba's photograph.

ii) The incident depicting how Baba saved 'Mana' of Dasa Ganu:

Dasa Ganu got into scrap without any fault of him. A convict's fine Rs.32 was realised and sent upto Dasa Ganu's Police station, as amount has to be credited to Government. The amount was received by Dasa Ganu's assistant and was pocketed by him in the absence of Dasa Ganu. As convict was not released, a complaint was made followed by enquiry. Dasa Ganu was suspended and punishment seemed to be imminent. At this juncture, Baba safeguarded Ganu's prestige by bringing out the truth.

iii) The incident depicting how Baba saved his 'Vritti':

Bannumai was a great realised soul, who has reached the highest level of the spiritual ladder. Her age was only 20 years. She used to live in forest without having any attachment to worldly life. She used to be nude and away from people. For local people, she was mad, but for Chandorkar, she was Bhagavathi. Chandorkar wanted to perform puja for her, but how?. He prayed Baba. Baba only after confirming that Chandorkar is not having any ulterior motive, permitted him to perform pooja.

Chandorkar equipped himself with puja articles and on an auspicious day left for her birth place 'Bodhagav'. Village people looking at this, spoke nonsense about Chandorkar. Chandorkar prayed to Baba asking for darshan of Bannumai. Bannumai gave darshan, the moment Chandorkar bowed to her, she disappeared in lightening speed. The question of performing puja did not arise.

Once again Chandorkar prayed to Baba for her to appear and accept the puja. She appeared, accepted puja articles from Chandorkar and dressed up by wearing saree, kumkum, turmeric, flower, and also tied mangala sutra by herself. With unlimited happiness, Chandorkar bowed and she kept her blessed palm on his head and immediately she removed everything and ran nakedly into the forest.

Before leaving the village, he wished to have once again the darshan of her, immediately the closed doors of temple premises was opened where Chandorkar stayed. Bannumai gave darshan.

Just then, an ugly, develish looking lady came and grabbed the child wanting to take him away. Baba gave her a blow with His 'Satka'. She fled crying loudly. Baba then said, "She came to eat your son. She was deprived of her ration. I did not throw the flour at the outskirts today, as you thought, it was unwanted. But I drove her away with My Satka. Now she will not torment your son".

Family filled with awe at Baba's kindness and Anatarjnanana.

Hansraj once decided to teach a lesson to the cat. One day, when cat came to eat curds, Hansraj beat severely on its back with a stick.

After noon arati, Baba was distributing Udhi to devotees. Jog, Dikshit, Shyama, Butti etc. were there. Baba addressed them by referring to Hansraj and said "there is an Umpatiya (one who does reverse of what he asked to do) who wants to die by eating sour and astringent food. But I would not allow him to do that. Today I went to him in the form of cat, that fellow has given me a caning on my back, see here ."Then Baba uncovered HIS back and showed a weal on his back.

She started telling " A demon like black person was carrying me away, I was terrified and could not do anything. So I called Baba for help.

The saints clearly visualise spiritual values. They treat birth and death with equanimity. In 1918, Baba left His mortal coir, as if it is a worn out cloth to be changed. Satpurusha like Baba will impress this pure and clear vision on His devotee also. Joy and sorrow, birth and death frequently come up before the saint and the worldly person alike. The former shows his dextrous detachment and is unmoved when they occur, whereas the latter is swept by them off his feet.

On one such occasion, Baba's words removed the blinding screen of ignorance of the devotee by His figurative and epigrammatic utterances.

When Appa Kulkarni's death was imminent, his wife ran upto Baba and asked for Udhi to avert death. Baba declined to give Udhi, but gave her courage and clear vision as to the meaning of death. Death is a mere change of clothes.

Baba told her, "Appa wants to change his kupni(dress) before I do. Let Appa go. Do not stop him".

Sri Gopala Ganesha Siriyan, a devotee of Baba since 1911. In 1924, Siriyan’s friend had promised that he would accept Siriyan’s daughter as his daughter-in-law. But as years went, because of higher education acquired by the boy, the boy’s father sought alliances from families where he would get more dowry forgetting the promise made to Siriyan. Siriyan was very much perturbed by this action of his friend and prayed to Baba. Baba gave him the vision and promised him, “Don’t worry. I will make that boy only as your son-in-law within two years”. As time passed, the new alliance for that boy did not materialized, the realisation has dawned on the boy (by Baba’s grace) and told his father not to break the promise because of money. Thereby, his father came to Siriyan asking for his daughter to marry his son and thus marriage was performed within the time limit as promised by Baba.
